Hello...

I'm Dorothy Paad.

Whether facing each day with Cerebral Palsy, finding my voice among a lifetime of bullies or seeking purpose in the face of the Covid-19 pandemic, I've known how challenging life can be. That's why I want to help others realize their potential and never stop pursuing their dreams – no matter the obstacle.

In pursuing my dreams, I've overcome challenges to become a dancer, actor, instructional coach at the university level for future teachers, an award-winning author, and an advocate for individuals with disabilities and their caregivers as a spokesperson for the Caregiver Incentive Project. I've accomplished my dreams, and so can you.

Are you looking to inspire your students, team, or event participants? I'd love to share my journey with you!

"Dorothy reminds us to explore our potential and consider our possibilities. She inspires us to take action. We can and must do this daily, even in the most challenging situations, to fulfill our potential."

- Nancy

Her second book, Dorothy is Moving Mountains, shares her experiences with an adaptive skiing program, which won a U.P. Notable Book Award in 2022. Her third book, Dorothy is Teaching Teachers, highlights her work teaching education students at Northern Michigan University about inclusivity and special education.

"Dorothy has given me a deeper sense of strength and advocating for oneself. Truly magical."
